Mr. Carman and Ms. Melton:

On or about June 17, 2021, this office sent to Ms. Melton the transcript of her deposition with a cover letter and Errata Sheet. See attached and email below. I have, as of this date, not received a signed copy of the transcript back as requested in my letter.

In the transcript, Ms. Melton agreed to provide me with the following:

1. The email to applicants from Lisa Clark regarding an ESY position that advised recipients of the email that attendance at a group interview was required.
2. The document (presumably an email) by which Nicole Penn advised Ms. Melton that she would not interview her for an ESY program for students with disabilities.
3. Any written response that Ms. Melton made to the September 4, 2018 email to Ms. Melton from then Interim Supt. Farrell.
4. Ms. Mitchell's email in which she stated that Ms. Melton had been terminated.
5. Ms. Melton's doctor notes that she provided copies of to her representative relating to the 3020-a charges against her.

Please arrange for Ms. Melton to promptly provide the above-requested documents to me and to promptly return the executed transcript to me.

Dear Mr. Rushfield,

Here are the documents you requested I could not find an email for September 4, 2018. I provided a few more documents that I included in my 3020-a. This is not an exhaustive list of documents used for the 3929-a. Thank you

Respectfully,

Carol Melton
